Tequila and Jefferson

Tequila is a wonderfully friendly, sociable bunny. Sadly she was recently widowed as her long-term 'husbun' Heathcliffe eventually lost the battle against a tumour. Tequila has been living in Caroline's bedroom over the winter and has made friends with Jefferson, another bunny with health problems.

The wild buns – Cosmos, Pea, Pod and Goofy

These four siblings are hand-reared wild bunnies. They are very sweet and fun but somewhat nervy of humans. Goofy is particularly shy and refused to pose for this photo shoot!

Thistle and Tansley

Thistle and Tansley are very feisty wild cross bred bunnies. They are a bit shy of humans but very sweet and curious. They are prone to making a bid for freedom when you open their big hutch to feed them or clean them out.

Starburst and Austin

Starburst and Austin are the kind of rabbits who like to help themselves to their breakfast and dinner straight from the bucket! Wonderful bunnies with big characters! Austin has a large internal abscess which requires treatment with antibiotics.

Rocket, Giggles and Dakota

Rocket (left) is quite a legend at the rescue! The poor boy suffers from nervous aggression and a fair number of volunteers have suffered a few teeth marks in the past. Over time his temperament has gradually improved though some of us are still a little scared of him. He lives with the very handsome Giggles (centre) and the very forgiving Dakota. Rocket definitely thinks he's the boss!

Jingles and Tibby

Jingles and Tibby have a love for life! They are very curious, sweet and intelligent. Jingles has come out of his shell since arriving at the rescue and Tibby adores him. Unfortunately, Jingles has recurring problems with an abscess in his cheek which has had to be operated on several times. This has made it harder to find this lovely pair a new home.

Aero and Monopoly

This is Aero, a beautiful agouti buck and his wife Monopoly. These two are confident, sweet and active. They are happy bunnies but they are bit shy of humans so sadly have been at the rescue for some time.

Mars and Dexter

Mars and Dexter are healthy happy rabbits. Mars is very sweet and Dexter is very curious but takes time to trust people. Unfortunately, because they are less forthcoming than some of the other bunnies and would need a quiet home they have been at the rescue for some time.

Desmond

Poor Desmond is currently single after his partner Beauty sadly passed away recently due to ill health. She reached 10 and a half years old. Desmond is a little shy and enjoys his freedom during free range play sessions. Fingers crossed he will have a new friend in the not too distant future so that he does not become lonely.
